

I concur with the petition to add a 5 MHz Amateur Radio band. My experience when using frequencies near this band in Army MARS has been very positive, especially in the evening hours when frequencies above 7.1 MHz are unusable due to foreign broadcast interference.